

Hello Himid Class!

It's me again, just checking in to let you all know I'm still thinking of you and missing you all.

I hope you're all spending some quality time with those in your household and having fun in the sun! (While it lasts). I've been trying to catch a tan but just ended up burnt, which is surprising because I never thought I'd burn in England, I even wore sun cream! Please don't forget to wear sun cream and a hat if you're in the sun 😊

I wish I had more interesting things to tell you about what I've been doing, but if I'm honest the most exciting thing for me is seeing what you've all been up to! I've loved seeing the pictures of what you've all been doing. So much so, that I've created a Twitter account so that I can respond to everyone's wonderful pictures. The Twitter account is @HimidClass. I'll be replying personally to tweets!

Please let your parents/carers know that they can also email the school with some pictures attached if they don't have twitter.

Just a little reminder, don't forget to keep checking MyMaths and SPaG.com. Well done to everyone that's trying really hard. I see you!

Stay home and stay safe 😊

Miss Al-Saffar
