

Hello Himid Class!

Hurrayyyy we have sun again!! (Not to jinx it but I am extremely happy about it, if you can't tell). I've been spending a lot of time in the garden, trying to pretend I'm on holiday. However, I think the birds have another idea in mind as one pooped on me the other day. Don't laugh! ☹️ Hopefully, no birds are spoiling your fun, but either way... it's supposed to be good luck, or that's what I keep telling myself anyway.

I know some of you will have enjoyed a VE day party, some even had social distancing street parties! A house on my street was lit up and they were waving glowsticks while celebrating – it looked great.

Once again, I'd like to thank everyone who has made an effort to email school and/or tweet wonderful pictures.

The Twitter account is @HimidClass for anyone that would like to tweet me personally!

I am always checking MyMaths and Spag.com and I have left the old tasks on there for those who still haven't completed them.

Let's continue to pray for the less fortunate and stick to the rules to ensure that everyone stays healthy, happy and safe. Make sure you appreciate this time with your loved ones too. ☺️ I hope to see you all soon!!

Stay home and stay safe.

Miss Al-Saffar ☺️ ☐
