

Hello to everyone in the Early Years

We hope that you all have had a lovely week with your families.

What super stars you have been!

We have seen some fantastic work on Twitter or via email and are very proud of you all. Keep up the great work!

It is also great that we have been blessed with some more lovely sunshine and we hope that you have been able to enjoy some fresh air.

I have had another busy week. Kit has been playing his cello and even having lessons online. He was delighted to receive a certificate via email to say he was a music superstar. We baked again too, cupcakes this week with a few sweeties on the top. They did not last long! We have been getting our daily exercise with lots of walks and football, Kit's favourite! We have tried our best to work hard at home too. On Friday we also enjoyed celebrating VE day and spotting the flags and bunting when we went out for our walk.

Stay safe everyone,

Love from Mrs Brown

Hi Everyone,

I was so pleased to see lots of hard work on Twitter this week! Well done! You are definitely on the 'Proud Cloud'!

This week I have been out walking in my local area. I couldn't believe my eyes when I saw a deer! And I spotted a kestrel hovering in the sky.

You could look up a picture of them online; they are both very big animals.

Have you seen any unexpected animals on your walks?

I hope you are all safe and well.

Hello again all of our little superstars! How has your week been? I hope you have all had fun and kept your families smiling.

In Miss Thompson's house this week we have still been enjoying the nice sunshine, we have had a few barbecues and we have a long walk everyday. We had a street party on Friday for VE Day with lots of scones and cakes and music, it was lovely to see some neighbours we haven't seen in a while. Did you have any celebrations with your families?

I hope you are all keeping safe and well and I can't wait to see you all again very soon and share our stories!

Hello everyone,

I hope you are all well and staying safe with your family. I am missing hearing all your stories about the things you enjoy doing. This week we have been busy making decoration, bunting, poppies, paper chains and flags for our VE day street party. The boys had lots of fun seeing all our neighbours in the front gardens which was lovely. We had a picnic with lots of delicious treats, we danced, played bingo and had a quiz. I hope you all had a fun day to mark the 75th anniversary. Hopefully it won't be long until we are all back together, have a lovely week. Take care

Hello everybody,
I hope you and your families are staying well and enjoyed the sunny weather. We like to get out into the garden and so we were pleased it was sunny on VE day. To celebrate we made some Union Jack bunting and flags to decorate our house with and we painted some pebbles red, white and blue. We loved looking at some photos my Mam and Dad sent us of when they were little children on VE day 75 years ago, enjoying their street party. My girls love to hear their Granddad's stories of the war so we gave him a call and listened to some of his tales over the phone. Then we made a lovely picnic with some tasty treats and shared it in the garden. I can't wait to hear if you got up to anything to celebrate! Until then, stay safe and well.

Happy Birthday to me,
Happy Birthday to me,
Happy Birthday Mrs Young
Happy Birthday to me!

You might have guessed that it has been my birthday. I celebrated it on Friday 8th May which was also VE Day when we remember the end of the Second World War. The weather was absolutely gorgeous and we spent most of the day in the garden eating party food and lots of chocolate cake! I hope you have managed to spend some time outdoors too. I have also been busy painting the garden fence and doing lots of gardening.

It is lovely to see some of your photos on twitter. I miss you very much and I am sending you all a big hug.

Hello my lovely reception and nursery friends. I'm missing you all so much, I hope you're all having fun and staying safe. I have loved seeing what some of you have been up to on Twitter. You're all working so hard and having fun with your families, it's wonderful to see your smiling faces again.

We have had a nice week at home doing some baking ready for the VE Day celebrations. Isaac helped me to make scones and a Victoria sponge cake. It was delicious and we've enjoyed eating the leftovers over the weekend. On VE Day lots of families in my village had flags and decorations outside their houses. Some people were playing music and singing songs and we loved walking by and waving at our neighbours. Did you do anything special for VE Day?

We're still enjoying our daily walks and feeding the ducks, although this week the ducks weren't interested in our bread. Maybe they're getting lots of food from all the visitors at the moment and are feeling full!

I hope you have another lovely week at home. Keep looking after one another and keep smiling.

Lots of love
from Mrs Kebell
