

Dear Rousseau Class,

I hope you have had a wonderful week with your families and had a very well deserved break in the sunshine. As always, I am still missing you all, especially your smiles, your laughter, your chatter and of course your wonderful hugs.

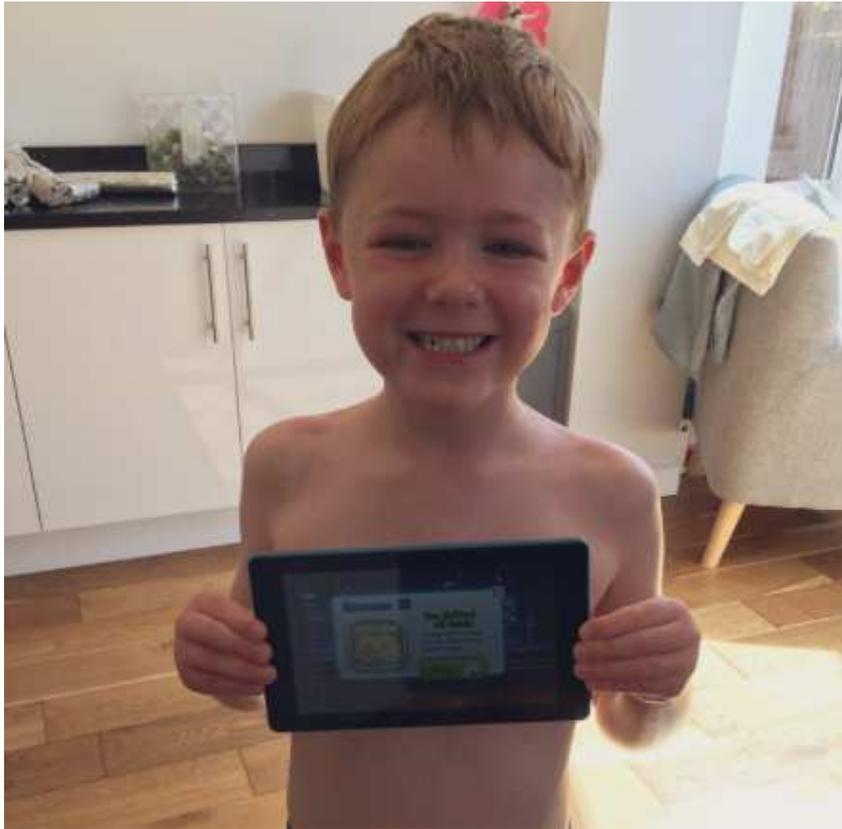

I hope you find this week's home learning fun. Remember I know and understand that lots of your grown ups are still at work or have to work from home so please tell them not to worry too much. I am back at school all next week preparing the classrooms for some children to return to school and doing lots of other jobs so Mr Lamond will take over the home schooling. He is not looking forward to it haha! I have told him, just like I have told you, to remember that you don't have to complete everything just try your best at having a go at some of the jobs.

Here are this week's 'Shout Outs'. Remember you can ask your grown up to log onto Twitter @ OLQOPPrimary and then you can see what your friends have been up to. There is a Rousseau Class page for you to follow @ClassRousseau and Constable and Mondrian also have pages too. Remember to leave a comment on your friends' posts so they know you have seen them. It would really make them smile! ☺

REMARKABLE ROUSSEAU SHOUT OUTS!!!

Fabian has loved learning about The Lambton Worm. He went on a walk to see how many things he could spot from the song and found the well, the River Wear, Worm Hill and Penshaw Monument. We can't wait to hear all about it Fabian!

Myles has been relaxing under the shade this week. He's been playing a motorbike game on his tablet and has completed all of the levels! A huge achievement as Myles rarely plays computer games.

Myles has also been enjoying his socially distanced Taekwondo lesson in the park! Great moves Myles!

Fraser has had a fabulous holiday in the sun this week. Can you guess where he has been?

Lovely to hear that you bumped into Leo on your bike ride. Hopefully we can all be together again safely soon.

I have had a lovely week in the sunshine with Shay, Corey and Mr Lamond. Seaham is a beautiful place to live but when the sun is out it attracts a lot of visitors so we have been keeping safe in our garden playing games and having fun.

We played one of our favourite games Frustration but this time Mr Lamond changed the rules and said we had to send someone back home whenever we could. It was the longest game EVER! Corey and I thought it was a rubbish rule but Shay and Mr Lamond liked it because Shay won and Mr Lamond came 2nd!

We also played 5 Second Rule. It was very funny. Shay and Corey didn't want their photo taken haha.

It was one of Corey's best friends birthday so we ventured out to post his card through his letter box. He was very happy but also sad that they couldn't be together.

I wore my wedge sandals for the first time since my foot operation and I was VERY happy that I could walk in them safely. 😊

I got a wonderful surprise when I went into school on Wednesday to work with the key children. Mrs Maher said you could see the happiness spread over my face. Thank you so much Olivia. I miss you so much too! Any guesses as to where I have placed my card Rousseau?

P.S. I am in the process of responding to Olivia's very thoughtful and wonderful idea. Keep watching this space Rousseau class!

Can you believe that Shay and Corey insisted on a pyjama/movie day on Friday (one of the hottest days), because it was the last day of the half term! I tried to talk them out of it but had no luck! We streamed the film Scoob. It was very funny but as usual I did cry too! I think you would love it too.

Here are some jokes to keep you smiling.

Mr Lamond -
Knock, knock.
Who's there?
Cows go.
Cows go who?
No, cows go MOO!

Mrs Lamond -
Why did the maths book look so sad?
Because it had so many problems!

Shay -
What did the zero say to the eight?
Nice belt!

Corey -

What is a witch's favourite school subject?

Spelling!

Perhaps you could think of some jokes too to send to your friends to make them laugh? Remember to keep your smiles bright until we get to reunite!

You are all in my heart everyday and I am very proud of you all for doing your best and for keeping smiling. The most important thing is that you and your families are well, happy and safe! Even though I am back at school, as always, I am just at the end of an email if you need me. Whether it is something you need help with, or simply just to say hello.

Until then remember to be good for your grown ups, have fun, be kind and stay safe.

Lots and lots of love, as always,

Mrs Lamond ☺
